

The Do Not Call list is a great thing. It gives the American people the right to their privacy. Solicitors should not be pestering people to meet their quotas or harassing people during their sacred time at home. Do not repeal the law.